

The Word on the Shelves

Drawn to the Library!

Spring has arrived, and so has a month full of stories, discovery, and celebration here at the library! As we kick off April, and National Library Week, we're excited to share some truly special programs that will take you on a journey through history and introduce you to the remarkable people who shaped our community. But that's just the beginning—April has so much more in store!

From exciting programs to new releases and opportunities to get involved, we've packed this month's newsletter with everything you need to stay connected and inspired. So sit back, relax, and keep reading to see what's happening at your library this month—you won't want to miss it!

Adventures Along the Lincoln Highway

April 3rd, 5:30 PM

Join us for an unforgettable journey along one of the most iconic roads in American history!

The Lincoln Highway was the first transcontinental highway in the United States, stretching from New York to California. Established in 1913, this historic route opened up new opportunities for travelers, businesses, and communities across the country.

In this special program, Iowa Author Darcy Maulsby will share fascinating stories, landmarks, and hidden gems along the highway. Whether you're a history buff, a road trip enthusiast, or someone curious about the impact of the Lincoln Highway on American culture, this event is sure to captivate. Learn about this great American roadway and how it shaped the landscape we know today.

Don't miss out on this incredible journey through time. Mark your calendars and join us for an adventure you won't forget!

Iowans You Should Know with Jeffrey Stein

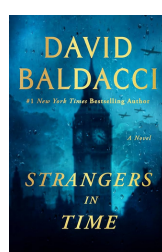

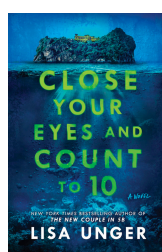

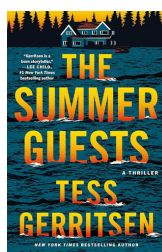

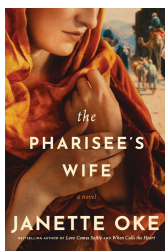

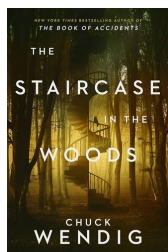

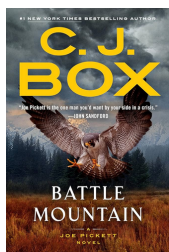

April 29th, 5:30 PM

Iowa has been home to some of the most influential individuals in history—figures who have helped shape our state, our country, and the world.

In this engaging program, historian Jeffrey Stein will introduce you to the lives and stories of these exceptional Iowans—many of whom you may not have heard of but certainly should. Whether they were groundbreaking leaders in politics, culture, or social justice, these individuals have made an indelible mark on history.

This evening will offer a deeper look into the unsung heroes who helped shape the fabric of Iowa and beyond. It's a unique opportunity to learn about the people who made Iowa what it is today and continue to inspire future generations.

Join us for this insightful and celebratory program, and discover how Iowans past and present have made a lasting impact on the world around us.

LEVEL
YOUR LIBRARY

Level Up at the Library!

Get ready to Level Up this summer at the library! Whether you're a young reader looking to earn prizes or a movie lover seeking a fun night out, we've got something for you.

This summer, our Summer Reading Program for children in grades K-5 is all about leveling up your reading skills! Kids can join the adventure, complete reading challenges, and earn cool prizes along the way. It's a fun way to keep kids engaged with books while they enjoy the excitement of summer. Be sure to watch for more details on how to sign up, along with the activities that will help them "level up" as readers. It's going to be a summer full of imagination, learning, and rewards!

We're also bringing back our Summer Movies at the King series, and this year's theme is all about games! Every movie will have a fun game-related twist that's perfect for all ages. Whether you're coming out with friends, family, or solo, these free movies are a fantastic way to relax, enjoy some great films, and experience the thrill of games on the big screen.

We are currently accepting donations to help support both our Summer Reading Program and the free Summer Movies at the King series. Your generous contributions will allow us to provide these activities free of charge for the reading program. Donations can be made at the library.

Get ready to level up your summer! We can't wait to see you at the library for tons of reading, entertaining programs, and unforgettable memories.
